“PART 3

Competing Claims

Multiple determinations involving the same child

6.—(1) Where the Scottish Ministers are required by section 37 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 to make a determination of the entitlement of two or more individuals for early years assistance in respect of the same child, the determination must be made in accordance with sub-paragraphs (2) to (4).

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the Scottish Ministers must—

- (a) make a determination of each individual's entitlement, notwithstanding that another individual may have previously been properly awarded early years assistance in respect of the child, and
- (b) in so doing, determine which (if any) of the individuals is to be entitled to early years assistance in respect of the child.

(3) Where the Scottish Ministers decide that two or more individuals are eligible for early years assistance in respect of the child, they must apply the rules in sub-paragraph (4) to determine which of the individuals is to be entitled to that assistance.

(4) The rules are that—

- (a) where only one individual has been awarded child tax credit, state pension credit or universal credit for the day, or assessment period that includes the day, in question (and the child is recognised to be a child for whom the individual has responsibility in terms of that award of assistance), that individual is entitled to that assistance,
- (b) where none of the individuals have been awarded assistance as described in sub-paragraph (4)(a), and only one individual has been awarded child benefit for the day in question (and the child is recognised to be a child for whom the individual has responsibility in terms of that award of assistance), that individual is entitled to that assistance,
- (c) where the individuals are kinship carers for the child, and none of them have been awarded any kind of assistance as described in sub-paragraph (4)(a) or (4)(b), the individual whose determination is to be made first is entitled to that assistance,
- (d) where one individual has been awarded child benefit for the day in question, and another individual is a kinship carer for the child, the individual who is the kinship carer for the child is entitled to that assistance.

(5) Where, having applied the rules in sub-paragraph (4) in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) it appears to the Scottish Ministers from information available to them that none of the circumstances described in rules (a) to (d) are true in the case of the individuals in question, the Scottish Ministers must determine which of the individuals is entitled to the payment having regard to the circumstances of the child.”

3.—(1) Paragraph 3 of schedule 2(a) of the Best Start Grant Regulations (exception to paragraph 1(b)) is amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In sub-paragraph (3)—

- (a) for “first came to be” substitute “is”,
- (b) for “after—” substitute “.”, and
- (c) omit heads (a) and (b).

(a) As relevantly amended by S.S.I. 2019/110.

(3) In sub paragraph (4) omit “, or the date the decision referred to in sub-paragraph (3)(b) was taken,”.

4.—(1) Paragraph 2 of schedule 3(a) of the Best Start Grant Regulations (exception to paragraph 1(c)) is amended in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) In sub-paragraph (3)—

- (a) for “first came to be” substitute “is”,
- (b) for “after—” substitute “.”, and
- (c) omit heads (a) and (b).

5.—(1) Paragraph 3 of schedule 4(b) of the Best Start Grant Regulations (exception to paragraph 1(c)) is amended in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) In sub-paragraph (3)—

- (a) for “first came to be” substitute “is”,
- (b) for “after—” substitute “.”, and
- (c) omit heads (a) and (b).

Amendments to Scottish Child Payment Regulations

6. After paragraph 5(5) of the schedule of the Scottish Child Payment Regulations (multiple determinations involving the same child), insert—

“(6) Where, having applied the rules in sub-paragraph (4) in accordance with sub-paragraph (3) it appears to the Scottish Ministers from information available to them that none of the circumstances described in rules (a) to (d) are true in the case of the individuals in question, the Scottish Ministers must determine which of the individuals is entitled to the payment having regard to the circumstances of the child.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Early Years Assistance (Best Start Grants) (Scotland) Regulations 2018 (S.S.I. 2018/370) (“the Best Start Grants Regulations”) and the Scottish Child Payment Regulations 2020 (S.S.I. 2020/351) (“the Scottish Child Payment Regulations”).

The Best Start Grants Regulations make provision about early years assistance, a type of assistance that is given by the Scottish Ministers under Part 2 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018. These regulations amend schedules 1, 2, 3 and 4 of the Best Start Grants Regulations.

Regulation 2 inserts a provision that allows a hierarchy to be used to determine eligibility for early years assistance where there are competing claims.

Regulations 3,4 and 5 respectively widen the exceptions contained in schedules 2, 3 and 4 of the Best Start Grants Regulations that are relevant to each form of early years assistance. This allows for such exceptions to apply to any subsequent applicant who meets the child responsibility test provided in regulation 9(1) of the Best Start Grant Regulations, regardless of when they become responsible for the child.

The Scottish Child Payment Regulations make provision about a Scottish child payment, a type of assistance to be given by the Scottish Ministers under section 79 of the Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018. These Regulations amend paragraph 5 of the schedule to the Scottish Child Payment Regulations.

Regulation 6 inserts a new provision, paragraph 5(6), after paragraph 5(5) of the schedule to the Scottish Child Payments Regulations. Where there are competing claims for the same child and the same period, and where the existing rules at paragraph 5(4)(a) to (d) are unable to determine which of the individuals is to be entitled to the payment, paragraph 5(6) enables the Scottish Ministers to determine the matter having regard to the circumstances of the child.
